3. Staff Updates, J. Gallagher

- First 5 Napa Network: Third cohort retreat will begin April 11, 2022. This is the last retreat and there are several design project that center around childhood development. Other projects focus on food access and anti-bias pediatrician services.
- Quality Counts- The second series of Safe Space traings was hosted along side our Sonoma partners.
- Home Visitation Coordination- New name adoped, "Family Support and Home Visiting". Also the first out of 3 equity collavorative session was held. Looking into merging other groups and involve more people around FSHV to form a collavorative.
- Community Programs: Rainbow Family League is coming to a close and empathic interviews have been conducted. There is also evaluation of the Rainbow Little Libraries that's happening. Lastly, planning for summer pride activities and programs is in the works.
